Age: 61

Qualifications:

Serving on the Utah State School Board of Education would utilize my teaching, political, board, and vast committee experiences. I am an experienced, self motivated, creative, problem solver that is open minded and knows the importance of compromise when working with a group. I've worked to balance multi-million dollar budgets which has taught me valuable financial lessons. Setting clear goals, policy, and direction has been necessary throughout my working career. I have found setting clear direction has always produced best results. Serving as Payson City Mayor, three different Boards positions, and a variety of committees has taught me the importance of working together and when necessary compromising. After thirty-two years as a classroom teacher I've learned the importance and value of a good education for students, the rolls of teachers, parents, and community in educating our youth. With my knowledge of education, government, and diverse experiences I would make an excellent addition to the State Board of Education.
